DERBYSHIRE SUE'S AWARD

A Derbyshire woman has been recognised at the UK's Annual Direct Selling Awards. Sue Westerdale, 61, was chosen as one of four finalists in the category of 50+ Direct Seller of the Year. Sue joined Younique, a direct sales company, at the age of 58 in 2015 after semi-retiring. Andy Smith, chairman of the Direct Selling Association, said: "This year's awards saw some exceptional nominations made by companies showcasing some of the very best talent in our industry so I'm delighted to offer my sincere congratulations to all our winners."
